

Apstein On Wine

VILLA MATILDE

Falerno del Massico Rosso DOP 2016

93 POINTS

This a broad shouldered red, delivering what you'd expect from Aglianico — tar and minerals and power. And tannins, too. But there's underlying voluptuous cherry-like fruit to it, creating a lovely ying/yang of fruit and savory minerality. Balanced and fresh because of the ever-present enlivening acidity, it finishes with a haunting touch of bitterness.

Michael Apstein - May 04, 2021

